20 Years Later From MTI On Oct. 7

MTI Home Video will bring director Jim Torres' post-apocalyptic sci-fi thriller, 20 Years After, to the DVD arena on Oct. 7.

After multiple calamities of terrorism, war and natural disasters, mankind teeters on the brink of extinction. It's not exactly the Garden of Eden in this future world that we find a pregnant Sarah (Azura Skye — One Missed Call, 28 Days) wandering an endless wasteland.

She was forced from her "safe house" hiding place by scavengers who are after her baby, which we learn will be the first live birth that anyone knows of in the last 15 years. She's really been pushed to the edge of her own sanity and the only thing that keeps her going are mysterious radio broadcasts from some detached voice named Micheal (Joshua Leonard, best known as Josh from the 1999 theatrical phenomenon, The Blair Witch Project).

Her goal is to survive, fight off those who would do her harm and find Michael. Simple enough, but we know from such post-apocalyptic films as Glen and Randa, A Boy and His Dog and The Omega Man that just surviving from one day to the next can be effort in itself. Being pregnant and alone in a savage land, survival and finding the ethereal Michael could prove to be impossible.

Azura Skye stars in the Oct. 7 post-apocalyptic DVD release of 20 Years Later from MTI Home Video.

Bonus features on this MTI Home Video DVD release include commentary from director/writer Jim Torres (SadoMannequin) and a behind-the-scenes production featurette.
