

Juncture

Produced on a fairly ambitious scale for a no-star indie, Juncture recycles the Death Wish formula and gives it a poignant twist. Diagnosed with brain cancer, executive Anna Carter (Kristine Blackport) dispenses vigilante justice to drug fiends, child rapists and murderers, staying two steps ahead of the police. Well-made and evenly paced, Juncture hits all the notes fans of this genre expect to hear.

Shelf Talk: MTI has come up with good gun-wielding box art for this "B"-grade thriller, which can be promoted alongside such recent vigilante films as Jodie Foster's The Brave One and Kevin Bacon's Death Sentence. —Ed Hulse
Thriller, color, R (mature themes, language, violence, mild sexuality, drug use), 106 min., DVD $24.95

Extras: director's commentary, featurette

Director: James Seale

First Run: DVD premiere

MTI
STREET: AUG. 12
PREBOOK: NOW

> Low-budget vigilante opus sports no-name cast but plenty of thrills.

