

November 7-20, 2000

CENTER STAGE

By David Ciminelli

Hit gay play draws Alanis, Olivia & other Hollywood celebs to the Zephyr

In addition to becoming an immediate hit with L.A.'s gay community, Del Shores' coming-out comedy Southern Baptist Sissies has been drawing Hollywood celebs to the Zephyr Theatre (7456 Melrose Avenue). Spotted in the show's audience over the past few weeks, and occasionally distracting attention away from the stage was Alanis Morissette, Lynn Redgrave, Delta Burke, Olivia Newton-John, and out comedian and actor Jason Stuart. No surprise then that the quasi-musical's run has been extended from November 9 through December 23. For ticket information, call (310) 289-2999.